Re: Recommendation – Corporate Staffing Services

We have, from time to time, engaged Corporate Staffing for our recruitment needs and they have provided us with qualified personnel.

Davis & Shirtliff Ltd, being a multinational that upholds high international business and commercial standards, does not compromise on the calibre of its human resource.

Corporate Staffing is a professional agency that meets all our staffing needs when required.

We look forward to continue working with them and recommend them as an able recruitment partner.

Yours faithfully,
